England Buys Japanese
Coal For Egyptian Use

Tokio, Japan, May 20.—In connection with recent orders from Great Britain for 200,000 tons of coal to be delivered in Egypt, several Japanese firms have entered into contracts with the British authorities for the supply of the whole quantity within a fixed period on condition that Great Britain sends steamers to transport the fuel.

As a result of the growing demand, the price of coal in Japan has increased in various offices and private factories where war orders from Russia and other countries are being filled, measures have been taken to purchase large quantities of coal in view of the upward tendency of the market.

All Wrinkles Soon Vanish—
How To Do It

By Miss Valeska Suratt

ORDINARY cream is of little value in removing lines of age. The following formula is positively revolutionary in its results, yet is simplicity itself. Mix this formula yourself at home in a few moments and you will have a quantity of an extraordinary wrinkle remover which would ordinarily cost many dollars if it could be bought in the stores already prepared.

To half a pint of hot water, add two ounces of powdered opium and two tablespoonfuls of glycerine. This forms a cream. When used, apply regularly every day, generously. The opium can be obtained at any drug store. This cream removes light and deep wrinkles, lines of worry, habit and age, and makes a difference of years in your appearance.

If you will make up your mind to use this cream faithfully, you can be absolutely sure that your search for a real skin rejuvenator is at an end. Real remarkable results have been obtained with this formula by thousands of women. It has almost made history for itself. It will make beauty history for you, too. Try it by all means.

EXTRIMINER—Superficial hair between the eyebrows, on the upper lip, in fact, on any part of the face, arms, shoulders or other part of the body is immediately removed by simple depilation. This dissolves away the hair harmlessly, instead of burning it off and leaving a red spot or mark, as do the superficial hair removers commonly sold. Sulfur solution can be obtained at any drug store. It can be used even on the tenderest skin without the least irritation or danger. It never fails.

MRS. L. F. O.—Great labor and long time are not at all necessary to acquire a quickly complexion. My formula I give you here. I believe in the most wonderful beautifier I have ever known. With a half pint of hot water mix two tablespoonfuls of glycerine, and while stirring pour in one ounce

20,000 CLUB WOMEN TO MEET

Greatest Woman's Convention
Ever Held to Start
Wednesday in New York.

NEW YORK, May 20.—The greatest women's convention ever held will start here Wednesday.

Twenty thousand club women, representing about 2,000,000 members of American organizations, besides delegates from Canada, Cuba and England, will gather to talk over great questions of the day.

It is the biennial convention of the general Federation of Women's clubs, born in this city 24 years ago.

The 50,000 club women of New York city have made careful preparations to receive the visitors and look out for their welfare while here.

The great seventh regiment armory has been fitted up easily. A big electric sign on the front will beckon the delegates from afar.

Roomy comfortable seats have been placed on the immense parade floor. These have been arranged to insure safety under the direction of the New York city fire department.

First aid stations to take charge of women falling ill suddenly have been established at several points.

Despite the immense numbers of the visitors and of their hosts, everything is expected to run off like clock work, under the direction of Mrs. William Grant Brown, chairman of the biennial board of the federation.

Special parties will be at railroad stations and ferries to welcome the visitors, literally with open arms, and escort them to their quarters.

Bands of boy scouts will be used to guide the visitors to the greatest "sky-scrapers," Grant's tomb, the Metropolitan Museum of Art and other points of interest.

Will Last Five Days.

In the five days the convention will last almost every important topic of interest to women will be discussed. The federation is not a political organization, but most of its members are enthusiastically for woman suffrage.

The great war, Mexico and the presidential election will be discussed. Other subjects will be: Art, civics, home economics, conservation, industrial and social questions, literature and library extension, public health, the press, and music.

Mayor John F. Mitchell and Gov. Charles S. Whitman will speak to the delegates Wednesday evening.

There will be numerous receptions, luncheons, music recitals and other social features.

The New Jersey Federation of Women's clubs will entertain 500 of the visitors and on the day of this joint Mrs. and Mrs. Thomas A. Edison will receive them at their home. The wizard of Menlo Park will reveal some of the secrets of his laboratory to them.

The Congressional Union will give a card party at the country home of Mrs. Coleman du Pont at Grant Neck, N. J., on the afternoon of June 3.

The steamer Mandalay will take the delegates from Battery park to the dock at Great Neck.

A temporary stage will be erected on the lawn. Speakers of prominence will discuss the present status of the federal suffrage amendment.

Mrs. John Hays Hammond has arranged for a reception to the visitors at the Metropolitan museum and will also entertain the presidents of all the great clubs in that case might take an interest in him.

(At right) Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker of Pennsylvania, who has served two terms as president of the Federation of Women's clubs and has declined to serve a third time, and her daughter, Miss Ruth Pennybacker. (At left) Mrs. S. B. Smith, vice president of the federation, a logical candidate for the presidency in the election this week. (Insert, above) Mrs. John Hays Hammond, wife of the mining man and financier, who will entertain part of the 20,000 delegates to the biennial convention of the federation in New York city.

So, against their better judgment, they saddled the child with Epiphilet, and a month later, when the cards had gone out and it was too late to change, they saw by the morning paper that Uncle Epiphilet had been caught absconding with $5,000,000 of the bank's war stocks, and had been sentenced to 30 years of hard labor.

"True," sighed the young mother. "I'd like to see him with a nice, comfortable, well fitting name like Dick or Harry, or Tom, but as you say, his Uncle Epiphilet in that case might take an interest in him."

The Daily Novelette

THE EPIC OF EPIPHILET.

What's in a name?
Oh, you can bet,
They'll call the boy
Epiphilet.

BUT the baby simply had to be named.
"I wish we could name him Hank," said the young father wistfully.

"I spent ten of the best years of my life overcoming the name of Gardania, and I have always resolved that my own child should have a nice simple short name that would be a help rather than a hindrance to him when he grew up. I wish we could name him Hank. But of course, his Uncle Epiphilet is the cashier of the town's biggest bank, and when the child grows up, if he is named after Epiphilet, his Uncle Epiphilet will give him a position in the bank, and after all, a start in life is everything. But I wish we could name him Hank."

"True," sighed the young mother. "I'd like to see him with a nice, comfortable, well fitting name like Dick or Harry, or Tom, but as you say, his Uncle Epiphilet in that case might take an interest in him."

IN CONSIDERING A HOMESITE CONSIDER

THE VALUE OF LOCATION

A careful home builder, in choosing a location for his home, first finds the district which meets perfect homesite requirements, and then selects his individual home location. His first demand is high, level ground.

Not only the ideal location for a home, think of the children who will need pure air and a healthy place to grow up in. Also consider the new $20,000 school that will be ready next fall. This is just the place for children, as there is no heavy business traffic that will endanger their lives, as well as no unhealthy smoke and dust from the city, to retard their growth. All of these essentials to a real home are found in Morning Side Heights.
